DETAILED ACTION

Note that the notice of allowance filed 11/03/2009 is withdrawn due to Applicants' filing of an RCE.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on February 3, 2010 has been entered.
2. Claims 1 -27are pending and examined on the merits.
3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Objections

4. claim 27 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claim 1. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

It is noted that Matthew Edwards was not available at the time to resolve this issue due to his personal leave. The Office was suggested to send out a non-final action instead of negotiating for an allowance due to his absence.

Summary

Claims 1-26 are allowed.

Claim 27 is objected. However, claims 1-27 are free from the prior art for the prior art fail to teach or fairly suggest the F58K mutant D-amino acid oxidase from Rhodotorula gracilis. The closest prior art is Bartsch (US Patent Number 6,759,572) which teaches a method to produce conditional male or female sterility by using an enzyme to catalyze the conversion of a protoxin to a toxin.
